My husband and I attended a meeting with Mr & Mrs Chambers whom I know have made an official complaint against Mr Bush at the British Legion On the 25th March 2013. 7pm. This was advertised in the Melton Times as for concerned residents of potential development in the SOUTH I wonder why that venue. as it appeared completely wrong considering there is a much more appropriate place i.e. THE EDGE for all the community. It soon became apparent, the people present where all pro opening a alley way adjacent Mrs Chamber property in Meadow Way ,which is involved in a dispute Mr Bush is one of the main forces.

1 Mr Bush chaired this meeting and completely failed to keep control of the persons present which subjected Mr& Mrs Chambers to verbal abuse being accused of planting items in the footpath & fabricating the facts of which we know not be true because we are also objecting as well after being on the receiving end for many years.

2. Mr Bush was not impartial and did not behave in a professional manner.

3. Allowed one particular person too effectively to take over.

4. We would never have attended if we had known this was on the agenda because of the implications that is going through a process.

5. We left feeling humiliated, and in disbelief thinking this man was elected to serve all South Melton people not a chosen few.

6. Mr Bush has no MORAL COMPASS.

We respectfully request this complaint is passed on to the highest level ie Mr Byron Rhodes& the Chief Executive.

PS it would be interesting to see the minutes, would they be a true reflection.
