1 Summary

- 1.1 In order to comply with Constitutional requirements, the following must be considered at the Annual Council meeting:
- 1.1.1 To agree the Officer Scheme of Delegation as set out in Chapter 2, Part 4 of the Constitution.
- 1.1.2 To confirm the Constitution and seek approval for proposed amendments to the Constitution.

2 Recommendation(s)

That Council:

- 2.1 Agree the Officer Scheme of Delegation; and
- 2.2 Confirm the Constitution.

3 Reason for Recommendations

- 3.1 The Constitution (Chapter 2, Part 1, Section 4.2) provides that the Council agree the Scheme of Delegation at the Annual Council meeting.
- 3.2 The Constitution (Chapter 2, Part 1, Section 4.2) provides that the Council confirm the Constitution at the Annual Council meeting.

4 Background

- 4.1 The current version of the Constitution, including the Officer Scheme of Delegation (Chapter 2, Part 4) can be found at the link below:

5 Main Considerations

- 5.1 The Constitution should be regularly reviewed and updated to ensure that it remains relevant and fit for purpose to ensure the Council is able to continue to work efficiently and quickly to meet its ambitions.
- 5.2 The Constitution Review Working Group consider updates and amendments throughout the year and changes are brought back to Council for consideration and approval.
- 5.3 The Monitoring Officer also has a delegation to make such changes to the Council's Constitution as he/she deems to be necessary and which are in the Council's interests and not major in nature, including, but not limited to, changes amounting to routine revisions, to provide appropriate clarity, to correct typographical and other drafting errors, to reflect new legislation, to correct inconsistencies in drafting Officer Delegations, to reflect new officer structures and job titles, properly approved through Council processes.

6 Options Considered

- 6.1 Consideration of the Officer Scheme of Delegation and the Constitution at the annual meeting are Constitutional requirements.

7 Consultation

- 7.1 Significant changes to the Constitution would require consultation with Members through the Constitution Review Working Group. No changes are being proposed in this report with any areas for review due to be considered at the next meeting of the Working Group.

8 Next Steps – Implementation and Communication

- 8.1 The Constitution is under continuous review to ensure it is relevant, clear and adheres to changes in the law and best practice.

9 Financial Implications

- 9.1 There are no direct financial implications arising from the report.

10 Legal and Governance Implications

- 10.1 The Constitution (Chapter 2, Part 1, Section 4.2) provides that the Council agrees the Scheme of Delegation and confirms the Constitution at the Annual Council meeting.
- 10.2 It is a legal requirement to have a constitution. The Council would be unable to make decisions without proper governance arrangements in place.
- 10.3 The adoption and approval of amendments to the Constitution is a matter reserved to Council.
- 10.4 The Monitoring Officer has delegated authority to make "such changes as they deem to be necessary and which are in the Council's interests and not major in nature, including but not limited to: changes amounting to routine revisions; to provide appropriate clarity; to correct typographical and other drafting errors; to reflect new legislation; to correct inconsistencies in drafting Officer Delegations; to reflect new officer structures and job titles, properly approved through Council processes”. The Monitoring Officer keeps a record of all changes made in accordance with her delegated authority.
