The Red Lion	Grantham Road, Bottesford, NG13 0DF Bottesford	26/10/2017	Accepted 28/11/17	Following a review by the ACV Panel 27/11/2017 it was concluded that this nomination met the requirements of being an Asset of Community Value, in accordance with the Localism Act 2011 and the Assets of Community Value (England) Regulations 2012; specifically the Localism Act, Part 5, Chapter 3, s.88(2). This states that a building or other land is an Asset of Community Value if "there is a time in the recent past when an actual use of the building or other land that						28/11/2022

				was not an ancillary use furthered the social wellbeing or interests of the local community and... it is realistic to think that there is a time in the next five years when there could be non-ancillary use of the building or other land that would further (whether or not in the same way as before) the social wellbeing or social interests of the local community.” It was felt that there was now sufficient evidence to support this definition.

			Retained as an Asset of Community Value on amended plan 17/08/17 Partial Listing	an Asset of Community Value was upheld by the Community and Social Affairs Committee, however, they accepted that site plan would need to be amended as it contained land that was not part of the ACV listing. It is now part-listed and qualifies as an exemption. The owners have notified that they intend to sell.
The Boat Inn	57 Burton Street, Melton Mowbray LE13 1AF	15/03/17	Rejected 09/05/17	Following a review by the Head of Communities and Neighbourhoods it was felt that the Boat Inn did not fully meet the definition criteria set out in the Community Right to Bid legislation, specifically the Localism Act Part 5, chapters 2 and 3. The Community Right to Bid states that a building or other land is an asset of community value if its main use has recently been, or is presently used, to further the social wellbeing or social interests of the local community and could do so in the future. The Localism

				Act states that 'social interest' include cultural, recreational and sporting interest. It was felt there was insufficient evidence to support this definition.
The Red Lion Public House and Car Park	Red Lion Street Stathern LE14 4HS Stathern	23/01/17	Public House - Accepted 20/03/17 Car park – rejected 20/03/17	Following a review by the Head of Communities and Neighbourhoods it was concluded that the Red Lion Public House met the requirements of being an Asset of Community Value, in accordance with the Localism Act 2011 and the Assets of Community Value (England) Regulations 2012. In regards to the car park, it was concluded that this did not meet the requirements of being an Asset of Community Value, in accordance with the Localism Act 2011 and the Assets of Community Value (England) Regulations 2012, and in particular Part 5, Chapter 3, Section 88(2)(a)&(b) of the Localism Act which states that there is a time in the recent past when an actual	N/A	N/A	N/A	N/A	N/A	N/A

				use of the building or other land that was not an ancillary use furthered the social wellbeing or interests of the local community, and it is realistic to think there is a time in the next five years when there could be non-ancillary use. When considering the car park itself, it seemed that the use is ancillary to the primary use of the land as a public house. Therefore the decision was taken to separate out the public house from the car park, listing the pub itself, but not the car park.
